The weird thing about reputations is that they can take _____ to _____... but can be destroyed _____ t

Reputations can be easily _____ when “_____ gets _____”.

Having a good reputation helps you _____ friends and _____ people. (D. Carnegie)

1st Thessalonians 1

Look for the _____ in people - look for what's _____ - instead of looking for what's _____.
_____ what people are doing _____!

You can't only _____ on making a “good _____” to develop a good reputation.

You've got to build upon a first impression with substance, _____, and _____.

The substance of their reputation was deep _____, _____ and _____. They _____ in these three core virtues.

We _____ assume that great reputations are built on top of the mountain of _____.

Great reputations are built on top of the mountain of _____.

Never _____ a _____ of adversity, hardship, difficulty.

The _____ we long to have in people's lives comes from the _____ of the Holy Spirit!

_____ the _____. No matter what happens, _____ give up.
