Mark 9:14-29

At its heart, this is a story about Jesus loving a _____ and showing _____ to a boy who is totally in the _____ of _____.

Jesus _____ the _____ children! He wants to _____ us _____ from the _____ of sin & Satan in our lives. Satan will take every opportunity to _____ or _____.

Sin of the _____ is an open _____ for the devil to walk right in and _____ their children.

“This kind can come out _____ by _____.”
(v29) Do you realize that your _____ in the spiritual realm depends on your personal _____ ?

What you _____ in prayer, you _____ in spiritual authority... and in turn, our _____ in spiritual authority.

Mark 9:33-37

_____ reared its ugly head even among the _____. Jesus has to address this, _____ this. You must be willing to be the _____ - the _____ - of all.

There are no _____ people to Jesus and the Kingdom.

Jesus has given _____ and meaning and significance and _____ equally to _____ people! “For God does not show _____.” (Rom 2:11)

Mark 10:13-16

Childlike _____... faith... curiosity... wide-eyed wonder... _____ & receptivity... _____... innocence. This describes how we, as _____, are to _____ to _____.
